> Geneva, Sept. 10.—The empress of Austria was assassinated near Hotel Beaurivago this afternoon by an anarchist, who was arrested. He stabbed her majesty with a stilletto.

The man is named Lucchoni. He was born at Paris of Italian parents.

The empress of Austria was born Dec. 24, 1837. She was the daughter of the Duke Maximillian of Bavaria. She married Francis Joseph, emperor of Austria and king of Hungary on April 24, 1854 They had three children, the Archduchess Gisola, who married Prince Luitpold of Havaria, Archduke Rudolph, In Repty to an Inquiry, He Said the who married Princess Stephanie of Belgiam and who, seemingly, was assassinated in 1889, and Archduchess Maria Valeria, who married the Archduke Franz Salvador of Austria-Tuscany. The late empress was an enthusiastic horse-

It appears her majesty was walking from the hotel to the landing place of the steamer about 1 o'clock when an Italian anarchist suddenly approached and stabbed her in the heart,

The empress fell, got up again and was carried to the steamer unconscious. The boat started, but seeing the empress had not recovered consciousness, the captain returned and the empress was carried to Hotel Beaurivago where she

REACHES HAVANA.

Spanish Officers Have Made Extra Preyarations to Receive the Members of the Commission.

Havana, Sept. 10.-The United States transport Resolute, having on board the American evacuation commission, was sighted at 7 o'clock this morning from Morro castle and entered Port Havana at 7:45 a m. She anchored near a place called Triscornio, the most healthy part of the bay. At 8 o'clock General Solnao, chief of staff, and Major Garcia Bonitor, seneral of the staff, left in the palace carriage and in a little while afterwards General Parado, a member of the Spanish commission, and Dr. Congosto, secretary of the general government, drove in a carriage to La Machina wharf. Both parties there embarked in a steam launch and went on board of Yours for the Resolute to welcome the American commissioners.

The palace of the captain general has been prepared to do honor to the American commissioners. The stairs have been carpeted upon the occasion for the great reception days and the commissioners will be received in salon Crown.

SECRETARY ALGER IS NOW AT HOME.

Charges Against the War Department Were Not Worrying Him.

Detroit, Sept. 10. -- Secretary Alger arrived here from the east today. To a reporter's question, General Alger remarked that all he would say now was that he was glad to get home and especially to breathe Michigan air again. After arriving home, General Alger said he expected to remain about a week. Being asked to make a statement for publication relative to charges against the administration of the war department, the secretary replied:

"What do you want me to do? Get down a sewer with these sensational people? They are not worrying me. There is nothing to the charges exceptstopping at Hotel Beaurivaço for several ing somebody's desire to make political capital.
